

 Please enter a short title (max 25 chars) for this assignment.

- 1) Contribute in providing technical support for the implementation of the aquaculture component in FAO Program in Cameroon ;
- 2) Contribute to the identification of suitable locations for fish farming, adapted systems of production and fish processing activities. This mapping of suitable locations for fish farming will take into account the availability of services required for fish production and markets demand;
- 3) Contribute to the capacity building of beneficiaries and their organization in cluster or network;
- 4) Contribute in providing effective technical and economic support to beneficiaries engage in aquaculture production as a business, fish processing, and marketing;
- 5) Support the adoption of good aquaculture practices and biosafety measures ;
- 6) Contribute to the preparation of the technical specifications of inputs i.e. fish farm starter kits, equipment for fish food production (ex. extruder); processing kits, etc. and provide support to the procurement process ;
- 7) Prepare case studies, communication flyers, reports, publications and presentations in support of programme delivery.
- 8) Perform any other related duties as required in line with Fishery and Aquaculture Officer , FAOSFC

